

FlexiVan's Service Center in Alameda, CA is OPEN*

March 20, 2020

The FlexiVan Service Center in Alameda has reopened and is now operating at full capacity. Chassis services have been recognized as an essential component to the supply chain and therefore exempt from the recent COVID-19 Shelter-in-Place Order.

Meanwhile, the Bay Area Chassis Pool (BACP) remains fully operational, with FlexiVan continuing to support cargo activity through the Port of Oakland.
